The Archdeacon of Middlesex, Richard Frank, is recruiting for a PA to provide comprehensive administrative support, working closely with clergy, churchwardens, parish officers, and diocesan colleagues. Your work would directly support local churches across West London, helping parishes flourish, buildings be cared for, clergy supported, and key diocesan processes run smoothly. The role would be full-time for the first 18 months, based out of our Twickenham offices, with hybrid working welcomed. To find out more, go to <https://pathways.churchofengland.org/> and search for "Archdeacon of Middlesex". If you would like an informal chat about the role, do drop me a line at: archdeacon.middlesex@london.anglican.org
